VOL. XXII. NO. 18

MACDONALD COLLEGE

Friday, March 4, 1960

Macdonald College, Feb. 28.
(D.F.P.)

Today you have your change to decide who is to run your Students' Council next year. Polls are open from 9-5 in the Main Building. This year there are many good men and women up for all posts on Council. They have campaigned hard and represent the leaders on the campus. It is your responsibility to vote. You have seen the campaigns, now it is your duty to vote for the people you feel best suited to handle your student affairs next year. You have until 5 P.M., to make your decisions. Don't delay, vote.

At 8:00 p.m. this evening Miss Edna McCutcheon accompanied by a guard of honour composed of the three services represented on campus, will lay a wreath to officially open our 14th. War Memorial Service. Following the placing of the wreath we will have a two minute silence in honour of those who served in the two Great Wars.

Then the procession will retire to the Assembly Hall where our guest speaker will be introduced by Dr. James. Following Mr. Simond's speech he will be thanked by Dr. Dion.

In attendance at to-night's gathering will be representatives of the Quebec Command as well as members of the McGill Senate.

In case there is an overflow crowd in our assembly hall Gold Key members will direct students and staff to rooms in the Main Building where sound will be piped in from the Auditorium.

At press time the subject of Mr. Simond's address was unknown but we may rest assured that whatever topic he chooses it will be well worth your while attending.

The Macdonald College Royal Square Dance Competition

On Tuesday February 23, the College Royal Square Dance Competition was held in the Brittain Gym. This event was the elimination dance with an entry of eight teams. The three finalists from the dance were the Seniors, Juniors and Frosh Class. The finals were held on College Royal day in the Stewart Gym with the Frosh Class as the prize square dancers of Macdonald. Special mention goes to Mr. Math McKell who directed the Frosh. The interclass pie eating competition was won by 1st Phys Eds with their team of Sue Farrar and Bruce Walker. Honorable mention must go to the Chairman Stone and Tex Coulter for their organization.

I.S.O. NEWS Consul General of Panama To Visit Mac

The International Student's Organization Social Committee informs us that Don Eduardo de Diego, Consul General of the Republic of Panama and Dean of the Consular Body in Montreal, has consented to attend the annual I.S.O. Social slated for Friday, March 25th. The students of Mac will be looking forward to this event with some interest, for it is not very often that such distinguished persons visit our Campus.

The Committee again reminds interested students to contact either Betty Carscallen or Jean Hibbert, Laird Hall, or John "Slim" Myers or Bert Williams, Brittain Hall. Any culinary contributions of an international flavour will be appreciated (cost will be paid).

1960 College Royal

"Something to be proud of" — those were the words of Mr. George Atkins, the well known radio and television personality who officially opened the 1960 Macdonald College Royal last Thursday.

The big day came and passed all too quickly for those who put so much time and effort into making it the success it was.

Opening ceremonies in the Men's Gymnasium began with the arrival of the Queen and her four Princesses. Following several speeches, Dr. Haver, the staff advisor for the Royal, presented the lovely Miss Kathy Knight — the 1960 Royal Queen — to the audience. She reigned throughout the day and appeared with her princesses at the Awards Night.

The livestock show was once again a great success. The sixteen classes including swine, sheep, and cattle were held throughout the day. Winners were:

Beginners Champion Livestock Showman — Marion Waddell, H.Ec. III.

Swine Champion Showman — Bill Stevenson, Dip. II.

Sheep Champion Showman — Benjie Brown, Dip. I.

Ayrshire Champion Showman — Doug Burnside, Agr. III.

Holstein Champion Showman — Ian Monroe, Agr. II.

Grand Champion Showman — Ian Monroe, Agr. II.

Reserve Grand Champion Showman — Tex Coulter, Agr. II.

There was keen competition in the Inter-Option Booth Display. The judges awarded the Class '48 Shield to the Diploma (Agr.) class for their display which demonstrated the application of modern scientific technology in the sugar bush. 2nd and 3rd prizes were awarded to Animal Husbandry and Poultry respectively.

Other results were:

Poultry Judging

Best egg exhibition and poultry judging — Joe Ruet, Agr. III.

Home Economics Section — Veda Lightbody, H.Ec. IV.

Agronomy Seed Judging

Specialists — Allan Elliot, Agr. IV.

Non-specialist — Gib Patterson, Agr. IV.

Congratulations to the participants who worked so hard to make the 13th Annual Royal the success it was. To Alison Reid, winner of the award given to the girl who contributes the most to the Royal, and especially to Ross Sager, Barb Armstrong, the Executive and Directors, a hearty vote of thanks for a job well done.

The Rise and Fall of Sammy Small

This year's excellent Green and Gold enabled students and their parents to gain a glimpse of that controversial group of people known as the beat generation. After watching the show, even the most confirmed square must admit that such people who indulge in self criticism must have some value to society. In fact, the beatnik could be called the intellectual eccentric of this modern age.

With such a large cast, it is extremely difficult to pick out names. Some deserve special mention. Merrily Weisberd and the beat dancers handled their gyrations in a very convincing manner. Dot Graul's talented acting and beautiful singing delighted both the audience and cast. Bob Cecil, very ably performed his title role, especially in the singing.

For the unusual plot, we are indebted to a far seeing group led by Geoff Stewart. Steve Hart as producer and Eric Armstrong as director, made a very good team and the cast enjoyed working with them.

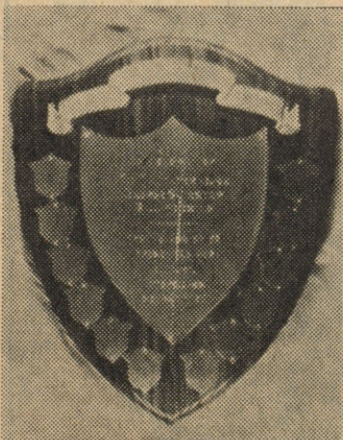

A final question that lingers in one's mind: Did the play do more harm than good? It is rumoured that several people will be spending the summer vacations in Greenwich Village.

Fault-He Award

The Fault-He Times Award has been presented by the Class of '62 in memory of three classmates, T. K. Waterhouse, W. Hodgins and G. Sangster.

This year the Award will be presented to the class, which in the opinion of the judges has prepared the best issue of the Fault-He.

Next year, due to the fact that there will be no class issues the Award will go to the class that has contributed most to the paper throughout the year.

Special Award

This space was originally reserved for a picture of the Mr. Graham presenting the prize steer to Tex Coulter. Unfortunately the picture was destroyed in the disastrous fire early Wednesday morning in which 5 Montreal Firemen lost their lives. There was insufficient time to duplicate the picture for this issue. Replacements were found for the other.

Ile Perrot, Feb. 27. (D.F.P.)

Last Thursday Tex Coulter was the proud winner of an Aberdeen Angus steer donated by Mr. Graham of Ile Perrot to the Grand Champion Beef Showman. This afternoon Tex saw his prize for the first time at the Grahams' beautiful farm on the banks of the Ottawa River. He is shown receiving the beautiful animal from Mr. Graham, who deserves a very sincere thanks for his interest in college activities in such a substantial way.

THE PURPOSE

Tomorrow at 1:30 an informal gathering will be held in the Lounge of Laird Hall in order that as many students as possible have a chance to discuss topics of interest with Lieutenant-General Guy Simonds.

The major purpose of these war memorial services is to have our leaders of to-morrow as well informed as possible so that future world peace may be assured.

Since early last fall a hard working committee chaired by Dr. Hawkins has been busy preparing for to-day's celebrations. Dr. Duporte was the very capable co-chairman representing Agriculture while Miss Devereaux was representing Household Science. The Graduate Society's position is held by Grant Ross; Mrs. A. B. Walsh represents the Alumnae Society for the School of Teachers. Other members of the committee include Don MacNaughton, Edna McCutcheon, Charmaine Stone, Pat Duplessis, a representative from the Post Grads on campus, Dr. Dion, who is replacing the Chancellor and Mr. Shackel, Assistant Registrar.

It is our sincere hope that every student of Macdonald College makes an attempt to attend the service at 8 p.m. and as many as possible should join this friendly chat in Laird Hall. Remember Mr. Simonds is a very out-spoken gentleman and he has many times been referred to as the Montgomery of Canada. So let's all do our part and show our distinguished visitors that students at Macdonald are really interested in the affairs of the world.

Letter to the Editor

Brittain Hall,
Macdonald College,

Dear Sir:

The Green and Gold of 1960 is over. To those of us who were connected with its production I can only say that we had a wonderful time. I hope that everybody who was able to see it also enjoyed themselves as much as we did.

On behalf of the Green and Gold Executive, I would like to congratulate the cast on a great performance. They were a wonderful lot of people to work with and I personally feel as if one big happy family has now been disbanded. Also on my own behalf I would like to thank every member of my executive who really put their all into this production. They all gave unstintingly and unselfishly of their time. Last but not least I would like to praise the sterling services rendered by the various subcommittees who worked so unobtrusively and effectively to make the show, it was.

My last words are to ask you to come and vote at the annual Green and Gold ELECTIONS which will occur shortly. Notice of these elections will be posted and EVERY member of the student body is invited to take part.

Sincerely

STEVE HART.

A Matter of Life and Death

"This has nothing to do with justice! This is a court of law." Although these are the words of an 18th Century English judge, the implications are obviously equally valid to-day.

In the last edition of the Failt-Ye Times, there was a letter published "On Capital Punishment", which strongly advocated the abolition of the death penalty in Canada. Since that article was written, there has been a two day debate on the subject in the House of Commons. Section 206 of the Criminal Code at present provides that an accused found guilty of murder shall be sentenced to hang. The current debate is concerned with a bill to amend this section; to abolish the death penalty for all crimes except treason.

Undoubtedly there will be a vote taken on the bill. Predictions are that it will be defeated. If this happens, then we, who make the laws in this country through our elected representatives, will be responsible for what follows — as we are now responsible for what has passed. Every time a man dies on the gallows, the onus will be on us to justify this act. Can we justify it? This writer is convinced we cannot.

Time and again the argument is raised that execution is the only effective deterrent to murder. This argument can and has been answered in the Commons. On Feb. 18, it was pointed out by Frank McGee, (P.C. York-Scarborough), that up until 1956 some 36 countries had abolished capital punishment, and nowhere in the statistics or in the analysis of the crime rates in these countries has any evidence been produced that the number of murders have increased.

McGee cited New Zealand as one example. From '46-'50 the average number of murders per year in that country was 6.7. This was a period when capital punishment was abolished. In the years from '50-'56, the average number of murders per year was 8.7, when capital punishment was again in effect due to a change of government. The same trend was noted when capital punishment was suspended in England, a few years ago.

In earlier days in that country public hangings were the order of the day, and among the categories of crime which were punishable by hanging was pickpocketing. Reports from those days indicate that when pickpockets were publicly hanged and all eyes were riveted on the gallows, the victim's colleagues were making hay in the audience. Clearly the deterrent aspect was not working, and the public hangings were discontinued.

To say that execution is not a deterrent at all would be absurd. Any punishment is a deterrent. But it has been demonstrated to the point of moral certainty that a sentence of life imprisonment is equally effective.

As far as the danger to society is concerned, no person convicted of murder need be released from a correctional institution so long as his retention is essential to the well-being of society and to his reformation. If capital punishment is not the only effective deterrent, and if society is not endangered by the criminal's imprisonment, then why maintain it unless from a desire for revenge?

If that is all that is keeping this law on our Statute books, then we are indeed a sick society. A statement made by Rabbi Feinberg on this subject was quoted in the Commons. The Rabbi said: "I remember the gratification I derived from the hanging of the Nazi war criminals. They had steeped their hands in the blood of six million Jews, . . . yet I recall my feelings with shame, as unworthy, and as more excusable only in degree than the cries of the mob milling about the gallows at Cornwall prison recently."

Instead of breaking a man's neck to pay a debt to a society that in most cases has done very little for him, it's about time we placed more emphasis on our penal institutions, and took a good long look at society's part in the making of criminals.

HOCKEY

On Friday Feb. 26th, the Mac girls met the McGill Hockey team for a suspenseful game. By the end of the first period, Mac led McGill 1-0 on a goal scored by Sue Porter. When the bell for the second period sounded, Mac got underway with a quick start and boosted the score by two goals both netted by Trinkie Hooker. McGill retaliated with a single, but Sally Kemp returned the goal with one in the third period. Sally Sadler played a spectacular game in the goals, making numerous saves throughout the game.

Saturday's game against Ormstown was cancelled as the team was slightly snow-bound down in Ormstown.

A softball manager is required for the spring schedule of sports. Anyone interested in filling this position should sign the notice posted on the W.A.A.-board in Stewart or Laird Halls.

Correction

Last week, an error was made concerning the Curling Club news. The team which played Howick was skipped by BILL STEWART, and ably at that. Fred Pierce played lead; Bill Dousett, second; and George Casson, third. All my apologies to Bill Stewart, I didn't mean to underestimate his curling abilities.

On February 24th the Fencing Club visited the Sir Arthur Currie Memorial Gymnasium to take part in the Metropolitan Open Foil Tournament. The President of the Club, Marj Robins came second in the "C" Class Women's Finals, and Janet Dettman tied for 5th place. Carl Anthony and Bob Jephcott slashed their way through into the Men's Finals. Best of luck to them.

HAL HARDEN, Pres.

ARTICLE I. Name

This organization shall be known as the Macdonald College Student Teachers' Society, hereinafter called the S.T.S.

ARTICLE II. Objects

- A. To elect an Executive Committee which will deal officially with all matters affecting the S.T.S., and which will act as the voice of that body.
- B. To elect from its own membership representatives to other campus organizations.
- C. To foster a healthy attitude towards the teaching profession, and to develop a stronger spirit of unity amongst the members of the S.T.S.
- D. To develop college spirit by contributing to and participating in campus activities with students from other faculties.
- E. To provide for its members the opportunity of learning and practising parliamentary procedure.

ARTICLE III. Members

A. Executive Committee:

1. Executive:

- (a) Honorary President (non-voting)
- (b) President (See Art. VI. A. No. 1. (j))
- (c) Vice-President
- (d) Second Vice-President
- (e) Secretary
- (f) Treasurer

2. Representatives:

- (a) There shall be one representative for each one hundred (100) students or less, and one additional representative for each fraction thereafter, to be elected from the following divisions:
 - (i) Teachers I (Freshmen)
 - (ii) Teachers II (Sophomores)
 - (iii) Teachers III (Intermediates & Post-Graduates)
 - (iv) Teachers IV (Elementary)
- (b) S.T.S. representatives on each of the other campus organizations (non-voting)

B. General:

Membership shall consist of all student-teachers enrolled in the Institute of Education at Macdonald College.

ARTICLE IV. ELECTION OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBERS

A. General Procedure:

- (1) Executive officers, with the exception of the Honorary President, shall be nominated from and elected by secret ballot by the S.T.S.
- (2) All nominations shall be written and shall be accompanied by the signatures of ten (10) members of the S.T.S., plus the signature of the nominee. Nominations should be submitted to the Chief Returning Officer not after than two (2) weeks following the day of registration.
- (3) No person shall sign more than one (1) nomination for each office. No person shall sign more than a total of two (2) nominations.
- (4) Results of all elections shall be publicly displayed to the S.T.S. for at least one week.

- (8) Campus Organization Representatives shall be elected as specified by the constitutions of the respective organizations.

C. Time of Elections:

- (1) All nominees must be introduced to the S.T.S. not later than five (5) days following the close of nominations (See Art. IV. A. No. 2).
- (2) Voting shall take place not less than five (5) days, not more than eight (8) days, following the introduction of the nominees.

ARTICLE V. TERM OF OFFICE

Executive Committee:

(1) Voting Members:

- (a) The term of office of the Executive Committee, with the exception of the Second Vice-President, shall extend from the time of elections until the completion of Graduation Ceremonies. The term of office of the Second Vice-President shall extend one calendar year from the time of his election.

(2) Non-voting Members:

- (a) Honorary President: The term of office of the Honorary President shall extend one calendar year from the time of his appointment.
- (b) Campus Organization Representatives: The term of office shall be as specified by the constitutions of the respective organizations.

(3) Vacancies:

- (a) Members who are absent from two consecutive meetings must vacate their positions when asked to do so by the Executive Committee.
- (b) Members who choose to resign must submit a letter to the Executive Committee, stating the reason(s) for their resignation, and the date of their resignation, at least one week prior to said resignation.
- (c) Elections for vacated positions shall be held within two weeks of the vacancy. The Second Vice-President shall be Chief Returning Officer for these elections. In the event that the Second Vice-President vacates his position, the Executive Committee shall appoint a Chief Returning Officer.

ARTICLE VI. DUTIES OF MEMBERS

A. Executive Officers:

(1) President:

- (a) Shall act as chairman of all meetings of the Executive, Executive Committee, and S.T.S. and shall call such meetings to order as soon as a quorum is present.
- (b) Shall have this constitution read at the first meeting of the Executive Committee, when all appointments to said Committee have been made.
- (c) Shall conduct the Executive, Executive Committee, and S.T.S. meetings in accordance with the constitution of the S.T.S. and Robert's Rules of Order.
- (d) Shall cause the roll to be recorded and minutes to be read.
- (e) Shall receive and submit for discussion all motions made by the members.
- (f) Shall state and put to a vote all motions, and shall announce the result of the vote.
- (g) Shall present all messages and communications, or cause such to be done.
